JOE BRUCHAC

- GLUSKABE STORIES

Joe Bruchac transmits the living spirit of these ten Abenaki tales that were traditionally told only from September to May, in this way insuring that during the busy summer months people were working and not dreaming. Joe tells the stories in his own way while remaining true to the original form. These stories lead us to an understanding of who we are and what our place is in the world. They help us find respect for ourselves and respect for the earth. Joe accompanies himself with drumming and chanting. An Adirondack native of Abenaki ancestry, Joe brings a rich and varied knowledge to his storytelling. This 80 minute recording has received the 1993 Parent's Choice Classic Honor Award as well as the 1990 Silver Award received the year it was released.

THE ELDERS SPEAK

DAKOTA & OJIBWAY STORIES OF THE LAND

- told by Gourd Woman and Eagle Heart
With a simple offering of tobacco, the "Old Ones" unfold ancient stories and make known a mystical and spiritual land. The storytellers speak of a land where the waters, buttes, stones, plants and animals reveal the lessons and origins of Humanity. These places and their stories are all around us and speak to us today. Gourd Woman and Eagle Heart, with kindly hearts and a genuine desire to preserve these rare stories for future generations, share them on this remarkable recording. Great for children, adults, students, educators and those simply wanting to be entertained. Gourd Woman is a Dakotah/Hidatsa elder born into a family of storytellers on the Standing Rock Indian Reservation of North Dakota. Eagle Heart is an Ojibway elder and storyteller born on the Turtle Mountain Indian Reservation of North Dakota.

JACKALENE CROW HIENDELMAYR

LEGENDS OF THE NORTH AMERICAN INDIANS - VOL. 1

Twelve stories told by Jackalene Crow Hiendlmayr (Cherokee/Creek). Stories of brave deeds of warriors, of family love, of animals and birds. We tell the stories "to teach our young people to care for themselves that they might grow up strong and fulfill their visions, and teach us to respect and thank the Mother Earth who sustains our lives". Includes Circle of Life, Legend of Lake Okeechobee, The Magic Buffalo, How the Bobcat Lost His Tail.
IS 9041 (Out of Print)

- VOL. 2

For thousands of years...before there were books or radios, storytelling was used to teach young people about the past to instruct them how they should behave in the future. These legends were the slender threads that tied these youth to their ancestors. Storytellers were given the gift of the legends to instill pride in the past and hope for the future. Today, there are still legend keepers among the people and in the forefront is Jackalene Crow Hiendlmayr. Flute music by Fernando Cellicion. Includes Wolf Man, Hummingbird and Crane, Fox and Rabbit, Cat Cousins, Eagle Touch the Sun.

JOANNE SHENANDOAH- ALL SPIRITS SING

Award winning Iroquois singer and storyteller, Joanne Shenandoah, presents this epic musical journey of a young Iroquois girl searching for her own voice and song. Join in her quest filled with adventure and magic as she gets crooned by the moon, meets a turtle who speaks in "runny fiddles," and sings with the wolves. The music offers a beautiful blending of traditional Iroquois chants and Joanne's contemporary expression of her culture's values through song. There is a warm and humorous message for anyone who has ever felt shy about singing, yet wished more than anything that they could.

"We are taught from a very young age to appreciate and respect the many natural gifts which have been given to us. The music you are about to listen to is a audio journey into a universe of music vibrating to the infinite songs of being." (Joanne).

DOVIE THOMASON

- LESSONS FROM THE THE ANIMAL PEOPLE

Dovie Thomason is a Lakota/Kiowa Apache storyteller and cultural educator. Dovie's storytelling is simple, direct and resonant. LESSONS FROM THE ANIMAL PEOPLE is a collection of nine stories for people of all nations and races. This collection contains stories from different Native American tribes including Lakota, Catawba, Algonquian and Penobscot. Storytelling is the traditional way to guide young (and not so young) lives without punishment or embarrassing confrontation. The musical talents of Ulali are interwoven throughout the stories. Ulali's music is rooted in the indigenous culture of the Americas and at the same time is thoroughly contemporary. This 90 minute recording is recommended for ages 4 and up. It has been chosen as a 1997 American Library Association Notable Children's Recording. YMP 103 Cassette $2.00 CD $15.98

- FIRESIDE TALES - More Lessons From The Animal People

Stories are more than 'just entertainment' for children. These stories offer listeners a chance to look at our world and ourselves in a different way - the way of the Native American. Traditionally told by an older person during the cold season, they are told to teach the history, the memories, the culture and the values of the People to the next generation, while also reminding the older generation of the proper way to live in harmony with the Earth and all who share it. Most of the stories on this recording are from the Iroquois tradition, often told by many of the Six Nations. Seven more wonderful LESSONS FROM THE ANIMAL PEOPLE including Fox & Goldfinch, Bear & Chipmunk and Why There Are Bats.

YMP 104 CD $15.98

- WOPILA - A GIVEAWAY

WOPILA, a collection of seven stories retold by Dovie Thomason, has been awarded the 1993 Parent's Choice Gold Award as one of the best recordings for children. Lakota stories are intended to teach proper behavior or a moral lesson without the narrow moralizing of many familiar fables. Unlike many modern images, good and evil are neither obvious or polarized in her stories. The characters are multi-dimensional and face choices - choices faced by children and adults, in our time as in the past. Side one features stories that teach the ways of the Lakota - the comforting protection of The Pet Donkey, respect for the spiritual world in The Spirit Wife, values in The Rabbit People or Iya (Camp Eater). Side two offers a selection of stories about Iktomi, a person who personifies the best, and the worst, in human beings as in Iktomi and Buzzard, Iktomi and Ducks and Rocks and Iktomi Changes His Mind. The entire recording is augmented by the traditional flute music of Kevin Locke, an outstanding interpreter of traditional Native American flute music.
